PRESIDENT'S REPORT March 2013

Our February gig was washed out due to flooding. I extend a special thanks to Virginia and the team for notifying everyone of the cancellation in good time.

Feedback from the survey and Bill's Book has been positive and encouraging. Many thanks from the committee for all those who participated. It is obvious that members and guests are happy with the quality and variety of the artists who perform. Condong Bowling Club is well accepted as our new home with positive comments on the staff, level of service and the kitchen. Also, good comments on the friendliness and helpfulness of the Jazz Club committee.

Our club, like many other Jazz Clubs, is feeling the economic pinch. Many members feel the entry fee is too high and agreed with trialling a Sunday afternoon gig in the colder months rather than the night gigs.

Our gig nights cost from $1,300.00 to $1,600.00 to stage, depending on the cost for the main band. This cost includes hire of sound system, advertising, raffle prizes etc. There are also annual costs for Public Liability Insurance, printing and postage of newsletters, support for the Jazz Sections in the Festival of Performing Arts and the annual Combined Schools Workshops etc.

The committee has decided against reducing the entry fee at this stage as we would have much difficulty in attracting good quality bands with such a cut to the budget. The nights we have good attendances and good profits are when we have the more expensive bands, such as George Washingmachine, Caxton Street and the Big Bands.

As a result of your feedback, the committee has decided to trial a Sunday afternoon gig on September 1st which will replace the night gig on August 30th. Condong Bowling Club will join us to run the gig on a trial basis. There will be 2 bands - Lez Karski with a blues band, followed by Lucky Star with a jazz band. Music styles will include blues, jazz, country and rock - ideal for a dance and a toe tap.

Looking forward to catching up at our next gig.

Peter McLaughlin
President

Les Wilson's Swing Force Big Band has emerged as a bright & energetic band of Swing sound with talented musicians. The band has been formed out of enthusiastic musicians & their love for Swing sound and public demand for the "peoples" music. Performing music from the great swing bands including Count Basie, Glenn Miller, Duke Ellington and songs made famous by Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald, Peggy Lee, Dean Martin, Natalie Cole, Bobby Darin plus many others. Their professionalism comes to the fore with their presentation of swing hits from the past, combined with updated arrangements of present day numbers.
