PRESIDENT'S REPORT - JULY/AUGUST 2013

As a result of feedback from the recent Club Questionnaire the committee put in place a Sunday afternoon gig, on a trial basis instead of having the regular Friday night gig in August. This will be on Sunday September 1st commencing at 1.45pm to 5.00pm There will be a variety of music for you to enjoy and dance to including Jazz, Blues and 50's/60's Rock. The Lez Karski Blues Band will start the entertainment from 1.45pm to 2.45pm and after a short break The Lucky Starr Quartet will take to the stage and continue to entertain with toe tapping tunes we love to sing and dance to. The ever popular Lucky Starr will join in the fun for a one hour spot to bring the afternoon to a close at 5.00pm.

The afternoon will be jointly run by the bowling club and our club, therefore the whole club area will be used and the dance floor will be available for dancing. This will mean that seating arrangements will be a little different, so please remember to contact Virginia on (02)6677 7172 and reserve a seat. Entry is $15.00 for all - great value.

Looking forward to catching up at the next gig.

Peter McLaughlin
President.

JULY GIG:

FRIDAY 26TH JULY

6.00pm to 7.00pm

THE NINA SIMONE SHOW

The Nina Simone Tribute

Band featuring:

Phil Eizenberg

(Musical Director)

Lissy Stanton

Peter Leighton

Rod Coe

The Nina Simone Show came about from an epiphany held by Musical Director Phil Eizenberg. Phil has loved the music of Nina Simone since his early teen years when he stumbled across her music lying around his parent's home.

Nina Simone was one of the most complex & brilliant artists of the Twentieth Century. She started playing piano at age two and made her first public appearance at age 12. She was a mystical intersection of the sophisticated, cosmic and crass. She was soulful & extremely politically conscious. Nina was a musician that black America disregarded & white America with white Europe could neither control nor contain. She ascended by carving her own niche, but died lonely, brokenhearted & misunderstood. Her first single was "I loves you Porgy" by Gershwin from Porgy and Bess, which sold well & launched her recording career. Nina was known for her African-inspired clothes & hair, fusing traditional & contemporary styles.

Nina Simone 1933 - 2003 - a musical genius.

7.30pm to 10.00pm

GEORGE WASHINGMACHINE

"Feel The Manouche"

Featuring:

George Washingmachine -

violin/vocal/ukelele

Arthur Washington - guitar

Jerry Washington - guitar

Clare O'Meara - accordion/

violin/vocal

Stan Valacos - double bass

The ever popular, effervescent and entertaining Mr. George Washingmachine is back with "Feel The Manouche". Manouche is a term from the French Loire region describing an accordion based Mussette - what we in Australia call "Gypsy Jazz". This ensemble is working on a vast repertoire of tunes to show the worlds diversity of musical styles and George is very proud to have his two sons playing in the band.

We invite you to sit back and "Feel the Manouche".

AUGUST GIG: SUNDAY 1ST SEPTEMBER

Special Afternoon Event - $15 Entry for All.

Doors Open 1.30pm

The LEZ KARSKI Band

Featuring:

Lez Karski- vocals/guitar

Dirk Dubois - bass

Pete Wilkins - drums

Lez Karski has been the unique soul/blues guitar & vocal style of The Foreday Riders, Hippos, Bondi Cigars, Donkeys & Nervous Investors. He's also the preferred sideman for visiting US Blues artists. The late great Johnny Johnson, Chris Cain, Kenny 'Blues Boss' Wayne, Dianna Greenleaf, Barbara Blue and Kyla Brox have all chosen Les as guitar man for their Oz tours.

A regular at the Bridgetown & Narooma Blues festivals, Lez played at the Byron Bay Festival with the Bondi Cigars and later with Johnny Johnson. He also represented Australia at Poland's 'Thanks Jimi' guitar festival while touring Europe with 'the Nervous Investors'. 'Dog Holiday' screened on ABC TV's 'Live at the Basement' featured Lez's songs performed with former Sydney Band mates. Lez relocated from WA where he was a founder of the Albany Blues Club. Now based in Lismore, he performs with his own 'Lez Karski Band' featuring Dirk Dubois (Chain) and Pete Wilkins (Blue King Brown).

Australia's own

LUCKY STARR

Band:

Russell Baines - guitar

Rick Best - piano

Owen Smith - drums

Peter McLaughlin - bass

Lucky Starr is one of the founding members of the Australian Pop Music Industry. A regular on television shows such as Bandstand and also hosted Six O'Clock Rock for one season. He also made regular appearances on Mavis Bramston, Revue 60-61 in Melbourne Tonight, Sing Sing Sing, plus many other entertainment shows. In 1962 Lucky recorded a hit record "I've Been Everywhere", which to date still remains one of Australia's all time favourites. The record received the highest accolade in the music industry, the Platinum Award. 1963 saw Lucky performing in the United States on the Nevada Circuit, The Flamingo in Las Vegas, The Mapes in Reno and Harvey's in Lake Tahoe. Also in the same year Lucky signed a recording contract with Dot Records in Los Angeles, releasing five singles. His agency was Coast Artist, signing performers such as Harry Belafonte, Jimmy Rodgers and Billy Eckstein. As a result of his American trips, Lucky was invited to work the Hilton Hotel Chain world wide spending several years working these prestigious rooms.

Lucky was also the first Australian performer to entertain the troops in Vietnam; in fact paying his own way there and made five subsequent trips into the war zone. 2002 and 2003 saw Lucky touring with "Long Way To The Top", an Arena Spectacular which toured Australia's capitals and regional centres. The show featured the cream of Australia's entertainers from the 50's, 60's and 70's. Due to its popularity it became the subject of an ABC Television special.

Lucky's style ranges from Rock & Roll, to Country through to Jazz and is in fact similar to the late great Bobby Darin. These days his polished performing style has him working full time in the business he loves.
