PRESIDENT'S REPORT - NOVEMBER 2013

Sadly I report the passing of Davey Rankin, affectionately known as "Dirty Dave". He was a trombone player known Australia wide as a fine musician and singer of "dirty ditties" and he was one of the very first musicians to appear at our club. I had the pleasure of working with Davey over many years in various bands and like so many will miss his company.

Bob Barnard and his band will be appearing at The Gold Coast Jazz and Blues Club on Friday 22nd November. This will be Bob's 80th Big Birthday Bash at the Gold Coast Arts Centre - phone 0755884000.

A new Jazz venue is opening at The Terranora Tavern. Gigs will be on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month starting at 1.00pm (DST). Resident band will be The Basement Band hosting various musicians and singers for "sit-ins". Meals are available - no cover charge.

As previously reported, several committee members are not standing for re election due to understandable personal circumstances. The good news is - looks like all positions will be filled. I will not be restanding after 18 years. Being part of the club and committee has always been an honour for me. Our members and committees have always contributed freely to the club and I am sure, as always, past committee members will continue to be involved. As Virginia Field said - "It's more like a family than a club".

I wish the club the very best and look forward to many more years of enjoyment.

Sincerely,
Peter McLaughlin.

Gold Medal Winners Festival of Performing Arts 2013!

We are delighted to introduce & showcase the Winners of the Festival of Performing Arts, Jazz Sections which are proudly sponsored by our club!

Since concluding its 11 years at the Caxton Hotel in the early 90s, the CSJB has continued to present hot classic jazz in a 6-piece line-up. Their reputation stems from many years of playing quality jazz music with an emphasis on entertainment and public appeal. The band eschews the labels "trad" & "dixie" which come nowhere close to describing the musical style it performs. Whilst the band's roots are firmly planted in the hot jazz of the early 1900s, many other influences are represented in its output. The CSJB's music is drawn from the early Ellington/Armstrong/Moreton/Beiderbecke/Bechet days, through popular music from American folk, country, swing & mainstream jazz genres of the 30s, 40s & 50s to 50s R&B and Rock 'n Roll. The band sets out to give this music a fresh, new edge which appeals to today's audiences.

Glen Shepherd/piano and Thea Shepherd/vocals comprise this talented duo. Glen is a well known pianist & vocalist throughout the Tweed having played many times at our club as well as other clubs & playing in various bands in the area.

Although the original line-up of 38 Express has changed over the years, it can boast having played at all the major hotels & clubs in Sydney before heading north. More recently they have played at the Southport RSL, Sofitel Gold Coast, O'Reilly's Canungra Valley Vineyard, South Tweed Sports Club and many other local venues.

This talented band play main stream jazz with passion and respect and feature the classic big band standards of Duke Ellington/Count Basie/Tommy Dorsey and others. The perfect way to start off the festive season!

DAVE RANKIN 1936 - 2013

Rank 'N' Banned at the Australian Jazz Convention,
Hobart 1977

Sadly Jazz Trombonist Dave Rankin passed away on Sunday 6th October after battling with emphysema for the last couple of years. Dave was born in Moonee Ponds, Melbourne and his foray into jazz was with Spike Edwards Rhythm Ramblers in 1956. In the '80s he moved to Sydney and eventually settled in Lismore where he attended Lismore University to complete an Arts/Music Associate Music Diploma, buy a house and create a highly successful singing telegram service. Dave and his band "Rank 'N' Banned" was the very first band to play for our Jazz Club way back in May 1996. Over the years Dave has played with many great bands and at many Jazz Conventions - we have lost an outlandish, inspirational entertainer who will be greatly missed!
