PRESIDENT'S REPORT - JANUARY 2014

Most of the members will know me only as the lady who takes their money at the door, so I thought for my first President's Report I'd let you know how I discovered the Club.

Eighteen years ago walking home from work on Sundays I could hear good jazz coming from a house on the riverbank. This house was actually the home of Marlene our present Secretary, and I would slow down to make the most of a rare treat. Michael & Paul the previous owners of Greenhills on Tweed suggested a meeting to discuss the forming of a Jazz Club and that is how the Jazz Club originated.

I missed the first two gigs due to work commitments but joined on the third night and have been helping ever since with many different members over the years who all shared a love of jazz.

LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU AT THE GIG.

Sincerely,
Joan Daniels
President
