PRESIDENTS REPORT

When one joins a committee it is understood that you'll take on whatever job that needs to be done, but I hadn't realised that would include attending a funeral. But when the departed was member number 3, it was a small ask. I should have realized with such a long standing member of our club, that music goes with him everywhere. Rob Philp departed amid the sounds of the music we all love to share. All that were there could have their feelings eased knowing that the music will always be ongoing, helping us through whatever we have to face and expressing our joy most of the time.

LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU AT THE NEXT GIG!!

Joan Daniels President

Just a word about our sponsors....

As you know, our sponsors are vital to our club. The purpose of this note is nothing more than a gentle nudge to give reciprocal support where you can. If there's a choice to be made between A or B for a supply or service, if one is a club sponsor, perhaps apply a little weighting in their favour when you decide. Bring to mind a jazz number or band you have enjoyed at the club and remember that pleasure is to some degree courtesy of the sponsor you are considering. Condong Bowling Club is also a critical factor in our club structure as they generously host us, month after month, providing the all important venue for our music. They accept the poor nights with the good in good grace. Maybe consider joining that club for their facilities as well as being our jazz venue.

----- HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE. -----

CHILLINGHAM VOICES

The group is an enthusiastic community choir led by choirmaster and trombone player, Harlie Axford who taught music at the Queensland University of Technology in Brisbane before retiring. The choir started in 2008 with eight members and now has around 40 people who regularly attend our weekly rehearsals. This concert will be a bit of a sea-change for the group since the numbers are all jazz classics, some familiar and others less well known. The choir will be performing with a local classy jazz band of local performers. The numbers include Stormy Weather, first performed in 1933 in Harlem by Ethel Waters, an African-American blues, jazz and gospel singer, The Joint is Jumpin' a 1937 number with music by "Fats" Waller, the influential American jazz pianist and Moonglow, a jazz standard from the same era. Other songs include Mood Indigo by Duke Ellington, Mack the Knife and All that Jazz from the musical Chicago.

Student workshop

On Thursday June 11th, nearly 300 local primary school students took advantage of a music workshop sponsored by Tweed Shire Council, at Condong Bowling Club's premises.. Organised by Tweed Valley Jazz Club the session was led by John Hoffman, a trumpet player and teacher with wide international and local experience, supported by six other local musicians.

The number of students learning and playing instruments through their schools was impressive as were their questions when invited to ask.

This was a very successful day following which more than a few present are involved in another council initiative for budding musicians, the Festival of Performing Arts. That Jazz section is also sponsored by the Jazz Club who will invite winners to play at the club a little later in the year.

VALE

It is with great sadness we acknowledge the passing of a long time club member and musician Rob Philp. Rob has been with the club since it's inception and was always available to help out when needed. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family at this sad time.

I will always remember Rob's rendition of one of my favourite songs "Tangerine" which he sang any time I asked.

REST IN PEACE ROB

Marlene Downing Sec/Treas.

VALE

It is with much sadness I advise members of the passing of Peter Vimpanii. Peter had been ill for the past 18 months and he and Carol only managed to make it to a few gigs when Peter felt up to it. Peter was not only a friend but a long standing member of our club.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Carol and Family at this sad time.

REST IN PEACE DEAR FRIEND

Marlene Downing Sec'Treas.
