Hinterland Community Big Band

The TVJC is very excited to have this band for the second time and is part of our program to keep big bands alive! The last time this band played was January 2015 to an enthralled audience.

Band leader Roger Munsie engaged the crowd with an almost endless set of history or interesting anecdotes about the songs they were performing, some going back to the 1920's.

The repertoire consists mainly of well trodden big band material of the 30's and 40's such as Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw, Glenn Miller and Duke Ellington. The swing dancers seemed to never be off their feet!

This band consists of 15-16 dedicated players who are keeping alive the wonderful music of the big band era, with some other interesting modern pieces added to the repertoire.

Band line-up is led by the very talented Roger Munsie on alto sax and clarinet. Other prominent musicians in the group include Tab Paenga on Tenor sax, John Edwards on bass, Gary Matthews on piano, Martin Wyatt on guitar, Barry McKenna on alto sax and Reg Payne on baritone sax. They play dances at the last remaining ball rooms on the Gold Coast and are looking forward to playing for us.

THE WAY I SEE IT

Authenticity

That's what we and our fellow jazz clubs strive to maintain, ongoing authentic live jazz. But at times it seems to be economically unsustainable. The arithmetic is diabolically simple. The number of people through the door on gig nights, times the admission charge, plus raffle tickets and the annual membership subs. That either covers the night's expenses or it doesn't.

This situation isn't unique to Tweed Valley Jazz Club. Many entertainment venues struggle, some less than others if they are part of a larger club with wider sources of income.

To maintain a specialised, high standard music venue, relying almost totally on door money is becoming steadily more difficult. The options are limited.

Could we, and should we, subsidise our jazz with other music? This is a discussion we really need to have and not only at committee meetings. Your thoughts and ideas are needed. The committee already gives almost constant attention to this dilemma.

The current door rates of $10 and $15 have been in place since April 2013. During that time the committee has successfully pulled the club back from annual losses but we now need to return to the entry charges of 8 years ago, that is $15 and $20. This is important to further develop and maintain our high level of quality while we consider widening our music base to attract more members and visitors securing the ongoing financial health of the club.

President, David Lintern

'THE EARLY BIRDS'

Last Friday of the month..

A reminder and invitation to any member who plays an instrument, or can sing, that our Early Birds band is an informal platform for a jam session. It is an unpaid group of members motivated purely by a shared love of music - any music with rhythm and swing. The composition of the band varies according to who puts up their hand. A bit rusty? Not to worry. Blow the worst out at home then come along and be drawn into the spirit at the club. Just joining in lifts you anyway and you are truly helping the club. Ours is a friendly environment and your involvement will be appreciated. Contact any committee member.
