A Brief History of the Blues'!!!

One of the Gold Coast's premier Blues Bands and one of the most respected blues musicians in South East Queensland....The Andrew Baxter Band goes on a musical journey.

Joined by a selection of guests, he presents the rich history of blues from its origins in the cotton fields and juke joints of the southern USA, from the Mississippi Delta to the pre-war styles of Swing & Jump Blues through to Chicago style & today's contemporary Blues.

Welcome, thrice welcome, to a shiny New Year.

Another landmark for live music in the Tweed Valley since we formally embrace Jazz' twin, its origin. Jazz AND Blues

Down to brass tacks! What does the name change mean, apart from a philosophical shift? The range of music we will provide in 2018 will be as wide as it gets. It will span just about everything under the jazz and blues umbrella. We will have super cool, Dan Bolton, high energy, maybe Blue Skillet Rovers, a generous helping of trad, Dixie, big band swing, memories of French 1930s with George Washingmachine and of course blues with Mojo Webb. Everything our little hearts could wish for.

I also want to acknowledge Joan Daniels, a member from the beginning. After many years of active involvement in TVJC stretching back over the whole life of the club including the presidency, Joan has retired from the committee. Health concerns forced the decision and on behalf of the club, we thank her for helping to get us to where we are today. We wish her many years to enjoy some less demanding time.

Now, with our reinvigorated format there is so much to anticipate, glorious music and friendship in an ideal environment.

Some things will stay the same, our Earlybirds for example, as long as members keep it alive. Some things may change. Next winter we may juggle our gig times a little, nothing dramatic but aiming for a slightly earlier finish on colder nights and we still have in mind the possibility of Sunday lunch gigs.

Tweed Valley Jazz and Blues is a living entity. David Lintern

Q: How many drummers does it take to change a light bulb?

A: Only one, but he'll break ten bulbs before figuring out that they can't just be pushed in.
